Case No. 8:17-cv-00783-DOC-KES

AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 Plaintiffs Patrick Quiroz, Dominique Mirza, and Louise Crespo (collectively,
2 “Plaintiffs”), by and through their attorneys, make the following allegations pursuant 3 to the investigations of their counsel and upon information and belief, except as to 4 the allegations specifically pertaining to themselves or their counsel, which are based 5 on personal knowledge:

6 INTRODUCTION

7 1. This is a class action against Sabatino Truffles New York, LLC and 8 Sabatino North America, LLC (collectively, “Sabatino” or “Defendants”) for the false, 9 misleading, and deceptive misbranding of their Sabatino White Truffle Infused Olive 10 Oil and Sabatino Black Truffle Infused Olive Oil (the “Products” or “Sabatino Truffle 11 Oil”) sold to consumers. Sabatino markets their truffle oil as being infused with actual 12 “White Truffle[s]” or “Black Truffle[s],” respectively. But Sabatino Truffle Oil is 13 nothing of the sort; instead of flavoring its oil with actual “White Truffle[s]” or “Black 14 Truffle[s],” Defendants’ Products are flavored with an industrially produced, 15 chemically-derived perfume known as “2,4-dithiapentane.” Despite the absence of 16 actual “White Truffle” or “Black Truffle,” Sabatino Truffle Oil is sold at a substantial 17 price premium over olive oil not infused with real truffles.

18 2. 2,4-dithiapentane, also known as “formaldehyde dimethyl mercaptal,” is 19 synthetically prepared by the acid-catalyzed addition of methyl mercaptan to 20 formaldehyde. Although it emulates the taste and smell of truffles, it is not truffle.

21 3. Sabatino’s misbranding is intentional. The front label and packaging of 22 Sabatino Truffle Oil represents in extra-large, bold lettering that the product is infused
23 with “White Truffle” and “Black Truffle,” respectively:

4. The mislabeling of Sabatino Truffle Oil renders the product completely worthless. By mislabeling its products, Sabatino dupes consumers into purchasing something that is not truffle oil. Nevertheless, Sabatino Truffle Oil is labeled and sold as premium truffle oil, and it commands a significant price premium over other olive oil products. For example, Sabatino Truffle Oil commands a 934% - 990% price premium, per fluid ounce, over a competing olive oil brand:

Brand	Quantity	Price	Unit Price
Sabatino White Truffle Infused Olive Oil	3.4 fl. oz.	$16.50	$4.80 per fl. oz.
Sabatino Black Truffle Infused Olive Oil	3.4 fl. oz.	$15.50	$4.55 per fl. oz.
Bertoli Extra Virgin Olive Oil	8.5 fl. oz.	$3.78	$0.44 per fl. oz.

Plaintiffs and class members have thus been hit with a costly double-whammy: a premium purchase price for a worthless product.

5. Through this lawsuit, Plaintiffs seek to recover, for themselves and all others similarly situated purchasers of Sabatino Truffle Oil in the United States, damages against Defendants for breach of the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act, breaches of express and implied warranty, unjust enrichment, negligent misrepresentation, fraud, and violations of New York, Pennsylvania, and California's false advertising and consumer protection laws.

THE PARTIES

6. Plaintiff Patrick Quiroz is a citizen of California who resides in Orange, California. In December of 2016, Plaintiff Quiroz purchased a 3.4 fl. oz. bottle of Sabatino White Truffle Infused Olive Oil from World Market in California. The bottle he purchased prominently displayed the product name and represented that it was infused with "White Truffle" in large, bold letters. He saw these representations prior to and at the time of purchase, and understood them as representations and warranties that the product was, in fact, infused with white truffles. He relied on these representations and warranties in deciding to purchase Sabatino Truffle Oil and these

1 representations and warranties were part of the basis of the bargain in that he would
2 not have purchased Sabatino Truffle Oil if he had known that the product was not, in
3 fact, infused with white truffles. However, the Sabatino Truffle Oil purchased by 4 Plaintiff Quiroz was mislabeled in that it was not infused with actual “White
5 Truffle[s].”

6 7. Plaintiff Dominique Mirza is a citizen of Pennsylvania who resides in 7 East Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania. In July of 2016, Plaintiff Mirza purchased a 3.4 fl.
8 oz. bottle of Sabatino Black Truffle Infused Olive Oil from World Market in 9 Pennsylvania. The bottle she purchased prominently displayed the product name and 10 represented that it was infused with “Black Truffle” in large, bold letters. She saw 11 these representations prior to and at the time of purchase, and understood them as 12 representations and warranties that the product was, in fact, infused with black truffles.
13 She relied on these representations and warranties in deciding to purchase Sabatino
14 Truffle Oil and these representations and warranties were part of the basis of the 15 bargain in that she would not have purchased Sabatino Truffle Oil if she had known
16 that the product was not, in fact, infused with black truffles. However, the Sabatino
17 Truffle Oil purchased by Plaintiff Mirza was mislabeled in that it was not infused with 18 actual “Black Truffle[s].”

19 8. Plaintiff Louise Crespo is a citizen of New York who resides in Brooklyn,
20 New York. In April of 2016, Plaintiff Crespo purchased a 3.4 fl. oz. bottle of Sabatino
21 White Truffle Infused Olive Oil from Key Food in Brooklyn, New York. The bottle 22 she purchased prominently displayed the product name and represented that it was 23 infused with “White Truffle” in large, bold letters. She saw these representations prior 24 to and at the time of purchase, and understood them as representations and warranties
25 that the product was, in fact, infused with white truffles. She relied on these 26 representations and warranties in deciding to purchase Sabatino Truffle Oil and these 27 representations and warranties were part of the basis of the bargain, in that she would 28

1 not have purchased Sabatino Truffle Oil if she had known that the product was not, in
2 fact, infused with white truffles. However, the Sabatino Truffle Oil purchased by
3 Plaintiff Crespo was mislabeled in that it was not infused with actual “White
4 Truffle[s].”

5 9. Defendant Sabatino Truffles New York, LLC is a corporation existing 6 under the laws of the State of New York, with its principal place of business as 400
7 East 54th Street, New York, New York. Defendant Sabatino Truffles New York, LLC
8 holds itself out as an importer of gourmet truffle oils and other Italian delicacies.
9 Defendant Sabatino Truffles New York markets and sells these oils widely throughout 10 the United States. Plaintiffs reserve their rights to amend this Complaint to add 11 different or additional defendants, including without limitation any officer, director,
12 employee, supplier, or distributor of Sabatino who has knowingly and willfully aided,
13 abetted, or conspired in the false and deceptive conduct alleged herein.

14 10. Defendant Sabatino North America, LLC is a corporation existing under 15 the laws of the State of New York, with its principal place of business as 135 Front
16 Ave., West Haven, Connecticut. Defendant Sabatino North America, LLC holds itself
17 out as an importer of gourmet truffle oils and other Italian delicacies. Defendant 18 Sabatino North America, LLC markets and sells these oils widely throughout the 19 United States. Plaintiffs reserve their rights to amend this Complaint to add different 20 or additional defendants, including without limitation any officer, director, employee, 21 supplier, or distributor of Sabatino who has knowingly and willfully aided, abetted, or 22 conspired in the false and deceptive conduct alleged herein.

23 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

24 11. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331
25 (federal question). This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over state law claims
26 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

27 12. This Court has original subject-matter jurisdiction over this proposed 28

1 class action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d), which, under the provisions of the 2 Class Action Fairness Act (“CAFA”), explicitly provides for the original jurisdiction
3 of the federal courts in any class action in which at least 100 members are in the 4 proposed plaintiff class, any member of the plaintiff class is a citizen of a State 5 different from any defendant, and the matter in controversy exceeds the sum of 6 $5,000,000.00, exclusive of interest and costs. Plaintiffs allege that the total claims
7 of individual members of the proposed Class (as defined herein) are well in excess of 8 $5,000,000.00 in the aggregate, exclusive of interest and costs.

9 13. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391, this Court is the proper venue for this 10 action because a substantial part of the events, omissions, and acts giving rise to the 11 claims herein occurred in this District. Plaintiff Quiroz is a citizen of California and 12 purchased Sabatino Truffle Oil from Defendants in this District. Moreover, 13 Defendants distributed, advertised, and sold Sabatino Truffle Oil, which is the 14 subject of the present Complaint, in this District.

15 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

16 14. Nothing boosts the prestige (and price) of a food or beverage like the 17 perception that it is traditional, hand-picked, fresh, or otherwise limited in 18 production.

19 15. For example, Whole Foods lists prices for its fruits and vegetables on 20 what appear to be chalkboards. The implication is that prices change regularly as if 21 responding to local crop conditions. In fact, the prices are permanently printed on 22 the faux chalkboards, which are part of a marketing strategy meant to “evoke the 23 image of Grapes of Wrath-era laborers piling box after box of fresh fruit into the 24 store.”

25 16. But in a world full of manipulative marketers, the truffle is the real deal.
26 A type of fungus that grows on tree roots, the truffle stands on the right side of the 27 line between decomposition and decadence. While many are viewed as almost 28

1 worthless, a few truffle varieties found in Italy, France, Spain, and surrounding areas
2 are esteemed as a luxurious addition to numerous dishes such as pasta, steaks, and 3 foie gras.

4 17. These truffles help dishes “jump off the plate” with an aroma that is 5 captivating. These fickle cousins of mushrooms have proven impossible to mass
6 produce; they are still dug up individually by dogs that track their scent.

7 18. The truffle stands in stark contrast to our era of convenience: the 8 preservatives in bread that allow it to stay fresh for weeks and the year-round
9 availability of seasonal fruits and vegetables. Admirers contend that the truffle 10 begins to lose its flavor as soon as it is pulled from the ground, and fresh truffles are 11 seasonal. The rarity of truffles has made them—at thousands of dollars per 12 pound for Italy’s prized white truffles—the most expensive food in the world. In 13 2007, a Macau casino owner set a record by paying $330,000 for a 3.3-pound truffle
14 unearthed in Tuscany.

15 19. The combination of these two trends—the desire for a convenient, ever-16 ready supply of an ingredient, and a hunger for the traditional, the rare, and “real 17 food”—has created an environment ripe for fraudulent behavior. This, in turn, led to 18 what seems to be a remarkably successful scam on foodie culture: truffle oil.

19 20. Despite the name, some manufacturers produce “truffle oil” that does 20 not contain even trace amounts of truffle; it is olive oil mixed with 2,4-dithiapentane,
21 a compound that makes up part of the smell of truffles and is entirely the product of a
22 laboratory. Essentially, truffle oil is olive oil plus a synthetic injection imitating 23 truffles’ famous taste and smell.

24 21. And Sabatino Truffle Oil is no exception. It is a distant cry from oil 25 infused with real truffles.

26 22. In fact, Sabatino Truffle Oil was submitted to a laboratory for DNA
27 identification testing to test for the presence of actual truffle.

1           23.    Unsurprisingly, the DNA analysis confirmed that Sabatino Truffle Oil
2 does not contain any truffle whatsoever.

3           24.    What it does contain, however, is 2,4-dithiapentane—a petroleum-4 based, synthetically-produced imposter chemical that imitates the distinct taste and 5 smell of real truffles.

6           25.    The Material Safety Data Sheet on 2,4-dithiapentane has many cautions
7 and warnings. This compound is listed as a flammable, as well as being a severe 8 eye, lung and skin irritant. If ingested, this chemical “may cause CNS [central 9 nervous system] depression,” and if it is inhaled, it can lead to delayed pulmonary 10 edema.

11          26.    And many consumers are tricked into purchasing what they believe to 12 be truffle oil because 2,4-dithiapentane is often disguised on truffle oil product labels
13 as “aroma,” “flavor,” or “essence.”

14          27.    To make matters worse, according to the New York Times, “one 15 teaspoon of ‘truffle aroma,’ the amount typically used in an eight-ounce bottle of 16 white truffle oil (black truffle oil is made with a lesser quantity of the same 17 chemical) costs about 40 cents.” By comparison, actual truffles cost hundreds or 18 even thousands of dollars per ounce.

19          28.    As another truffle oil manufacturer recently acknowledged, it is not 20 economically feasible for manufacturers to use actual truffles in truffle oil.

21          29.    Nonetheless, Sabatino capitalizes on this trickery to dupe consumers
22 into paying a substantial price premium for oil that is not infused with actual truffles.

23          30.    Sabatino intentionally designs its packaging so that the words “White
24 Truffle” or “Black Truffle,” respectively, appear in large, bold lettering on the front
25 of the Products’ label.

26          31.    Reasonable consumers attach importance to Defendants’ “White 27 Truffle” and “Black Truffle” claims when making a purchasing decision.

1 Defendants' false and misleading representations and omissions thus have, and 2 continue to, deceive reasonable consumers.

3 32. Reasonable consumers must and do rely on food label representations 4 and information in making purchasing decisions.

5 33. Defendants' statements that the Products are infused with "White
6 Truffle" or "Black Truffle," respectively, is material to a reasonable consumer's
7 purchase decision because reasonable consumers, such as Plaintiffs, care whether a 8 food product is actually contains what Defendants purport, especially when the 9 product claims to be infused with "White Truffle" or "Black Truffle," respectively,
10 which carries with it a significant price premium.

11 34. Defendants market and advertise the Products as infused with "White 12 Truffle" or "Black Truffle," respectively, to increase sales derived from the Products.
13 Defendants are well aware that the "White Truffle" and "Black Truffle" claims are 14 material to reasonable consumers, and knowingly mislabeled their Products.

15 35. Upon information and belief, in making the false, misleading, and 16 deceptive representations and omissions, Defendants knew and intended that 17 consumers would pay a price premium for Sabatino Truffle Oil if they were labeled 18 as infused with "White Truffle" or "Black Truffle," a coveted delicacy. Indeed, 19 Defendants prominently marked the front packaging of Sabatino Truffle Oil with the 20 words "White Truffle" and "Black Truffle," respectively, in large, bold font, 21 precisely because they knew that consumers like Plaintiffs attach great importance to 22 the presence of white truffle or black truffle in Sabatino Truffle Oil.

23 CLASS ALLEGATIONS

24 36. Plaintiffs seek to represent a class defined as all persons in the United 25 States who purchased Sabatino Truffle Oil (the "Class"). Excluded from the Class
26 are persons who made such purchase for purpose of resale.

27 37. Plaintiff Quiroz also seeks to represent a subclass of all Class members
28

1 who purchased Sabatino Truffle Oil in California (the “California Subclass”).

2 38. Plaintiff Mirza also seeks to represent a subclass of all Class members
3 who purchased Sabatino Truffle Oil in Pennsylvania (the “Pennsylvania Subclass”).

4 39. Plaintiff Crespo also seeks to represent a subclass of all Class members
5 who purchased Sabatino Truffle Oil in New York (the “New York Subclass”).

6 40. Members of the Class and Subclasses are so numerous that their 7 individual joinder herein is impracticable. The precise number of Class members
8 and their identities are unknown to Plaintiffs at this time but may be determined
9 through discovery. Class members may be notified of the pendency of this action by 10 mail and/or publication through the distribution records of Defendants and third 11 party retailers and vendors.

12 41. Common questions of law and fact exist as to all Class members and 13 predominate over questions affecting only individual Class members. Common legal 14 and factual questions include, but are not limited to:

- 15 a. Whether Defendants misrepresented and/or failed to disclose
16 material facts concerning Sabatino Truffle Oil;
- 17 b. Whether Defendants’ conduct was unfair and/or deceptive;
- 18 c. Whether Defendants have been unjustly enriched as a result of 19 the unlawful, fraudulent, and unfair conduct alleged in this Complaint such that it
20 would be inequitable for Defendants to retain the benefits conferred upon 21 Defendants by Plaintiffs and the Class and Subclasses;
- 22 d. Whether Defendants breached express warranties to Plaintiffs and 23 the Class;
- 24 e. Whether Defendants breached implied warranties to Plaintiffs and 25 the Class;
- 26
27
28

1           f.       Whether Plaintiffs and the Class have sustained damages with 2       respect to the common-law claims asserted, and if so, the proper measure of their 3       damages.

4           42.     The claims of the named Plaintiffs are typical of the claims of the Class
5       and Subclasses in that the named Plaintiffs purchased one or more containers of 6       Sabatino Truffle Oil.

7           43.     Plaintiffs are adequate representatives of the Class and Subclasses
8       because their interests do not conflict with the interests of the Class members they 9       seek to represent, they have retained competent counsel experienced in prosecuting
10      class actions, and they intend to prosecute this action vigorously. The interests of 11      Class members will be fairly and adequately protected by Plaintiffs and their 12      counsel.

13          44.     The class mechanism is superior to other available means for the fair
14      and efficient adjudication of the claims of Class and Subclass members. Each
15      individual Class member may lack the resources to undergo the burden and expense 16      of individual prosecution of the complex and extensive litigation necessary to 17      establish Defendants' liability. Individualized litigation increases the delay and 18      expense to all parties and multiplies the burden on the judicial system presented by 19      the complex legal and factual issues of this case. Individualized litigation also 20      presents a potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments. In contrast, the class 21      action device presents far fewer management difficulties and provides the benefits of 22      single adjudication, economy of scale, and comprehensive supervision by a single 23      court on the issue of Defendants' liability. Class treatment of the liability issues will 24      ensure that all claims and claimants are before this Court for consistent adjudication 25      of the liability issues.

1 CAUSES OF ACTION

2 COUNT I

3 (Violation Of California Consumers Legal Remedies Act)

4 45. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by reference the allegations contained in
5 all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.

6 46. Plaintiff Quiroz brings this cause of action on behalf of himself and
7 members of the California Subclass.

8 47. This cause of action is brought pursuant to California’s Consumers
9 Legal Remedies Act, Cal. Civ. Code §§ 1750-1785 (the “CLRA”).

10 48. Plaintiff Quiroz and the other members of the California Subclass are 11 “consumers,” as the term is defined by California Civil Code § 1761(d), because they 12 bought Sabatino Truffle Oil for personal, family, or household purposes.

13 49. Plaintiff Quiroz, the other members of the California Subclass, and 14 Defendants have engaged in “transactions,” as that term is defined by California
15 Civil Code § 1761(e).

16 50. The conduct alleged in this Complaint constitutes unfair methods of 17 competition and unfair and deceptive acts and practices for the purpose of the 18 CLRA, and the conduct was undertaken by Defendants in transactions intended to 19 result in, and which did result in, the sale of goods to consumers.

20 51. As alleged more fully above, Defendants have violated the CLRA by 21 falsely representing to Plaintiff Quiroz and the other members of the California
22 Subclass that Sabatino Truffle Oil was infused with “White Truffle” and “Black 23 Truffle,” respectively, when, in fact, it is infused with artificial chemicals.

24 52. As a result of engaging in such conduct, Defendants have violated
25 California Civil Code §§ 1770(a)(5), (a)(7), and (a)(9).

26 53. On March 24, 2017, a pre-suit demand letter was sent to Defendants via 27 certified mail that provided notice of Defendants’ violation of the CLRA and 28

1 demanded that within thirty (30) days from that date, Defendants correct, repair,
2 replace or otherwise rectify the unlawful, unfair, false, and/or deceptive practices
3 complained of herein. The letter also stated that if Defendants refused to do so, a 4 complaint seeking damages in accordance with the CLRA would be filed.
5 Defendants have failed to comply with the letter.

6 54. Accordingly, pursuant to California Civil Code § 1780(a)(3), Plaintiff
7 Quiroz, on behalf of himself and all other members of the California Subclass, seeks 8 injunctive relief, compensatory damages, punitive damages, and restitution of any ill-
9 gotten gains due to Defendants' acts and practices.

10 COUNT II

11 (Violation Of California's Unfair Competition Law)

12 55. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by reference the allegations contained in
13 all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.

14 56. Plaintiff Quiroz brings this cause of action on behalf of himself and
15 members of the California Subclass.

16 57. By committing the acts and practices alleged herein, Defendants have 17 violated California's Unfair Competition Law ("UCL"), Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§
18 17200-17210, as to the California Subclass, by engaging in unlawful, fraudulent, and 19 unfair conduct.

20 58. Defendants have violated the UCL's proscription against engaging in 21 unlawful conduct as a result of: (a) their violations of the CLRA, Cal. Civ. Code §§
22 1770(a)(5), (a)(7), and (a)(9), as alleged above; and (b) their violations of the FAL, 23 Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17500 et seq., as alleged below.

24 59. Defendants' acts and practices described above also violate the UCL's 25 proscription against engaging in fraudulent conduct.

26 60. As more fully described above, Defendants' misleading marketing,
27 advertising, packaging, and labeling of Sabatino Truffle Oil is likely to deceive
28

1 reasonable consumers. Indeed, Plaintiff Quiroz and the other members of the 2 California Subclass were unquestionably deceived regarding the true nature of 3 Sabatino Truffle Oil, as Defendants' marketing, advertising, packaging, and labeling
4 of the Sabatino Truffle Oil misrepresents and/or omits the true facts concerning the 5 identity and characteristics of Sabatino Truffle Oil. Said acts are fraudulent business 6 practices.

7 61. Defendants' acts and practices described above also violate the UCL's
8 proscription against engaging in unfair conduct.

9 62. Plaintiff Quiroz and the other California Subclass members suffered a 10 substantial injury by virtue of buying Sabatino Truffle Oil which they would not 11 have purchased absent Defendants' unlawful, fraudulent, and unfair marketing,
12 advertising, packaging, and labeling, or by virtue of paying an excessive premium
13 price for the unlawfully, fraudulently, and unfairly marketed, advertised, packaged,
14 and labeled Sabatino Truffle Oil.

15 63. There is no benefit to consumers from deceptively marketing and 16 labeling Sabatino Truffle Oil, which purports to be infused with "White Truffle" and 17 "Black Truffle," respectively, when this claim is false.

18 64. Plaintiff Quiroz and the other California Subclass members had no way 19 of reasonably knowing that the Sabatino Truffle Oil they purchased was not as 20 marketed, advertised, packaged, or labeled. Thus, they could not have reasonably 21 avoided the injury each of them suffered.

22 65. The gravity of the consequences of Defendants' conduct as described 23 above outweighs any justification, motive, or reason, and such conduct is immoral,
24 unethical, unscrupulous, offends established public policy, and is substantially
25 injurious to Plaintiff Quiroz and the other members of the California Subclass.

26 66. Defendants' violations of the UCL continue to this day.

27 67. Pursuant to California Business and Professional Code § 17203, 28

1 Plaintiff Quiroz and the California Subclass seek an order of this Court that includes,
2 but is not limited to, an order requiring Defendants to: (a) provide restitution to 3 Plaintiff Quiroz and the other California Subclass members; (b) disgorge all

5 and the California Subclass' attorneys' fees and costs.

6 COUNT III

7 (Violation of California's False Advertising Law)

8 68. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by reference the allegations contained in
9 all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.

10 69. Plaintiff Quiroz brings this cause of action on behalf of himself and
11 members of the California Subclass.

12 70. As alleged more fully above, Defendants have falsely advertised
13 Sabatino Truffle Oil by falsely claiming that it is infused with "White Truffle" and 14 "Black Truffle," respectively, when it is not.

15 71. Plaintiff Quiroz and the other members of the California Subclass have 16 suffered injury in fact and have lost money or property as a result of Defendants'
17 violations of California's False Advertising Law ("FAL"), Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 18 17500 et seq.

19 COUNT IV

20 (Deceptive Acts Or Practices, New York Gen. Bus. Law § 349)

21 72. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by reference the allegations contained in
22 all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.

23 73. Plaintiff Crespo brings this claim individually and on behalf of the 24 members of the proposed New York Subclass against Defendants.

25 74. By the acts and conduct alleged herein, Defendants committed unfair or 26 deceptive acts and practices by misrepresenting that Sabatino Truffle Oil was, in 27 fact, infused with "White Truffle" and "Black Truffle," respectively.

1 conduct that is deceptive or misleading in a material way which constitutes false
2 advertising in violation of Section 350 of the New York General Business Law by 3 misrepresenting the nature of the ingredients contained in Sabatino Truffle Oil.

4 82. The foregoing advertising was directed at consumers and was likely to 5 mislead a reasonable consumer acting reasonably under the circumstances.

6 83. This misrepresentation has resulted in consumer injury or harm to the 7 public interest.

8 84. Plaintiff Crespo and New York Subclass members were injured as a 9 direct and proximate result of Defendants' violation because (a) they would not have 10 purchased Sabatino Truffle Oil had they known that it was infused with artificial 11 chemicals, and not infused with "White Truffle" and "Black Truffle," respectively, 12 (b) they overpaid for Sabatino Truffle Oil because it is sold at a price premium when 13 compared to similar products that do not contain this misrepresentation, and (c)
14 Sabatino Truffle Oil did not have the characteristics, uses, or benefits as promised,
15 namely that it was infused with "White Truffle" and "Black Truffle," respectively.
16 As a result, Plaintiff Crespo and members of the New York Subclass have been 17 damaged either in the full amount of the purchase price of the Sabatino Truffle Oil or 18 in the difference in value between Sabatino Truffle Oil as warranted and Sabatino
19 Truffle Oil as actually sold.

20 85. On behalf of herself and other members of the New York Subclass, 21 Plaintiff Crespo seeks to enjoin the unlawful acts and practices described herein, to 22 recover actual damages or five hundred dollars per violation, whichever is greater,
23 three times actual damages and reasonable attorneys' fees.

4 88. Defendants are “persons” pursuant to the terms of Section 201-2(2) of 5 the Pennsylvania Unfair Trade Practices and Consumer Protection Law
6 (“UTPCPL”).

7 89. The packaging, labeling and display possessed by Plaintiff Mirza and 8 members of the Pennsylvania Subclass constitutes “documentary material” pursuant 9 to the terms of Section 201-2(1) of the UTPCPL.

10 90. The Sabatino Truffle Oil product that was ultimately possessed by 11 Plaintiff Mirza and members of the Pennsylvania Subclass was purchased primarily 12 for personal purposes.

13 91. Defendants’ advertising, offering for sale, sale, or distribution of 14 Sabatino Truffle Oil constitutes “trade” or “commerce” as defined by Section 201-
15 2(3) of the UTPCPL.

16 92. Defendants violated express warranties in the labeling and displaying of 17 Sabatino Truffle Oil that were ultimately possessed by Plaintiff Mirza and members
18 of the Pennsylvania Subclass.

22 94. The aforesaid actions of Defendants referenced above constitute 23 unlawful actions proscribed by Section 201-3 of the UTPCPL.

24 95. As a direct and proximate cause of the aforementioned unlawful actions
25 of Defendants, Plaintiff Mirza and members of the Pennsylvania Subclass have

3 ($100.00), and the Court may provide such additional relief as it deems necessary
4 and proper, including punitive damages.

5 97. In addition, Plaintiff Mirza is entitled to reimbursement for all
6 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred as a result of bringing this action
7 pursuant to Section 201-9.2 of the UTPCPL.

11 all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.

12 99. Plaintiffs bring this claim individually and on behalf of the members of 13 the proposed Class, New York Subclass, Pennsylvania Subclass, and California
14 Subclass against Defendants.

15 100. Sabatino Truffle Oil is a consumer product as defined in 15 U.S.C.

17 101. Plaintiffs and Class members are consumers as defined in 15 U.S.C. § 18 2301(3).

19 102. Defendants are suppliers and warrantors as defined in 15 U.S.C. §§ 20 2301(4) and (5).

21 103. In connection with the sale of Sabatino Truffle Oil, Defendants issued
22 written warranties as defined in 15 U.S.C. § 2301(6), which warranted that Sabatino
23 Truffle Oil was, in fact, infused with "White Truffle" and "Black Truffle," 24 respectively.

25 104. In fact, Sabatino Truffle Oil is an adulterated product that is not infused
26 with real "White Truffle" or "Black Truffle," but rather is infused with artificial 27 chemicals that emulate the taste and smell of real truffles.

1 Class members did not receive the goods as impliedly warranted by Defendants to be 2 merchantable.

3 116. Plaintiffs and Class members purchased Sabatino Truffle Oil in reliance
4 upon Defendants' skill and judgment and the implied warranties of fitness for the 12 purpose, and Plaintiffs and Class members did not receive the goods as warranted.

13 121. Plaintiffs and Class members were injured as a direct and proximate

15 Truffle Oil had they known that it was infused with artificial chemicals, and not 16 infused with "White Truffle" and "Black Truffle," respectively, (b) they overpaid for 17 Sabatino Truffle Oil because it is sold at a price premium when compared to similar 18 products that do not contain this misrepresentation, and (c) Sabatino Truffle Oil did 19 not have the characteristics, uses, or benefits as promised, namely that it was infused 20 with "White Truffle" and "Black Truffle," respectively. As a result, Plaintiffs and 21 members of the Class have been damaged either in the full amount of the purchase
22 price of the Sabatino Truffle Oil or in the difference in value between Sabatino
23 Truffle Oil as warranted and Sabatino Truffle Oil as actually sold.

24 COUNT X

25 (Unjust Enrichment)

26 122. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by reference the allegations contained in
27 all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.

6 negligently omitted material facts about Sabatino Truffle Oil.

7 132. The negligent misrepresentations and omissions made by Defendants,
8 upon which Plaintiffs and Class members reasonably and justifiably relied, were 9 intended to induce and actually induced Plaintiffs and Class members to purchase
10 Sabatino Truffle Oil.

11 133. Plaintiffs and Class members would not have purchased Sabatino
12 Truffle Oil if the true facts had been known.

13 134. The negligent actions of Defendants caused damage to Plaintiffs and 14 Class members, who are entitled to damages and other legal and equitable relief as a 15 result.

16 COUNT XII

17 (Fraud)

18 135. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by reference the allegations contained in
19 all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.

20 136. Plaintiffs bring this claim individually and on behalf of the members of
21 the proposed Class, New York Subclass, Pennsylvania Subclass, and California
22 Subclass against Defendants.

23 137. As discussed above, Defendants provided Plaintiffs and Class members
24 with false or misleading material information and failed to disclose material facts
25 about Sabatino Truffle Oil, including but not limited to the fact that it is an 26 adulterated product that is flavored by artificial chemicals, not by “White Truffle”
27 and “Black Truffle,” respectively. These misrepresentations and omissions were 28

1 made with knowledge of their falsehood.

2 138. The misrepresentations and omissions made by Defendants, upon which 3 Plaintiffs and Class members reasonably and justifiably relied, were intended to 4 induce and actually induced Plaintiffs and Class members to purchase Sabatino
5 Truffle Oil.

Counsel for Plaintiffs

CLRA Venue Declaration Pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1780(d)

I, L. Timothy Fisher, declare as follows:

1. I am counsel for Plaintiffs, and I am a partner at Bursor & Fisher, P.A. I make this declaration to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief of the facts stated herein.

2. The complaint filed in this action is filed in the proper place for trial because a substantial portion of the transaction occurred in this District, in that Plaintiff Quiroz alleges that he resides in this District and purchased his Sabatino White Truffle Oil this District.

3. Plaintiff Quiroz alleges that he purchased his Sabatino White Truffle Oil for household use from a World Market retail store in California. He alleges that when he purchased his Sabatino White Truffle Oil, he relied on Defendant's representation that the product was infused with actual "White Truffles." He understood that representation to mean that the Sabatino Truffle Oil did in fact, contain actual truffles.

4. Plaintiff Quiroz alleges that Defendant's misrepresentation of its White Truffle Oil was an immediate cause of his decision to purchase Defendant's Product. He alleges that in all reasonable probability that he would not have agreed to purchase Defendant's White Truffle Oil, or he would have sought materially different terms, had he known that Defendant's representations were false and misleading.

5. Plaintiff Quiroz alleges that Defendant's representation concerning the nature and characteristics of its White Truffle Oil played a substantial part, and so had been a substantial factor, in his decision to purchase the White Truffle Oil.

1 I declare under the penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California
2 that the foregoing is true and correct, executed on May 2, 2017 at Walnut Creek,
3 California.
